Dissemination level:	Public
Version:	1st
Delivery date:	November 2023
Keywords:	public - private collaboration, urban innovation practices, multi-stakeholders approach, urban change, urban action, grass root initiative, enterprises, urban innovation
Abstract:	Throughout the EUREKA Training Program we have made it a priority to connect the participants to the reality of their cities, the organizations (in all their forms) that already are doing urban innovation and find answers to their questions and skill needs through practitioners and experts on the matter. These encounters have happened in connection to the Urban Living Lab that the process has followed.
Authors:	All Cluster Partener teams
